

I just want to voice my opposition to the FCCs plan to require Internet broadband and VoIP providers to provide the means for the government to wiretip our services.